Skills and Abilities

Great under pressure

- Officiating and coaching sports can be very stressful and you must keep a level head. Dealing with customers in a high-stress environment, including evacuations. As well as planning and executing activities with educational attributes for large groups of children.

Great customer service skills

- Working with customers through booking sites, exploring the area, and helping through forest fire evacuations. As well as ensuring guests' children were aware of activities around the park.

Leadership

- Coaching younger kids in basketball, hockey, archery, and soccer. Leading after-school programs, as well as leading summer camp activities and field trips in my job at the RDEK.

Outdoors skills

- Spent my whole childhood outdoors. Proficient in archery, marksmanship, hiking, and other outdoors activities. My work experience is also heavily involved with the outdoors and conservation.
